1 CLOSET GRACE

The cool-to-the-touch fuchsia and aquamarine hues of these metallic hangers will spice up any dreary closet or wardrobe. Sold in sets of five, they also come in black for the classic modernist. $50, AT BOCONCEPT, 230 ADELAIDE ST E

2 HEART OF GOLD

You don't have to go mining for this rare beauty. Forged from bone china and trimmed in 22-karat gold, this delicate vase has three tiny feet at the back, enabling it to stand solo. $120, AT STUDIO PAZO, 729 QUEEN ST E

3 THREADCOUNT

Jeremy Laing flushes his spring collection with glimmering, translucent fabrics of lightly sheened black and silver. Draped and layered in loose-fitting cuts, the collection is as elegant as it is fierce. $495, AT JEREMYLAING.COM

4 HEAVY HITTER

Sebastian Herkner turns everything on its head with these side tables. A solid brass surface rests atop a delicate hand-blown glass base. Available in amethyst and smoky grey. FROM $3255, AT AVENUE ROAD, 415 EASTERN AVE

5 GLITTERATI

Penguin updates its Modern Classics collection by gliding hardcovers in gorgeous art deco patterns. Experience the glitz of NYC's Roaring Twenties with this gleaming edition of Fitzgerald's legendary novel. $26, AT TYPE, 883 QUEEN ST W

6 BOX SET

Solid copper sheets, contoured using the laser-grade precision of a water jet cutter, give this lamp its slick look. Hand-polished for added shine, the showstopper jazzes up any side table. CALL FOR PRICING, AT KLAUS BY NIENKÄMPER, 300 KING ST E
